

Did you miss an issue?

JANUARY / FEBRUARY 2007

Collect our first issue to see winter eagles in Des Moines, explore winter fun in Dubuque and learn about new threats to river sturgeon. Tag along for rabbit hunting with falcons and beagles, try German-inspired rabbit recipes and meet a teenage girl carrying on the family trapping tradition.

MARCH / APRIL 2007

Find wild asparagus, explore Maquoketa Caves and Bellevue State Parks, discover the Neal Smith Wildlife Refuge and the Loess Hills, meet America's sleepest turtle fighting to survive near Muscatine and test some hazelnut stuffed wild turkey breast.

MAY / JUNE 2007

See Iowa as never before—explore Okoboji's historic shipwrecks, find fossils near Rockford, paddle Dickinson County, see the beauty of bird nests, meet wildlife rehabilitators, build a rain garden and try stuffed venison appetizers and blackened venison tenderloin.

JULY / AUGUST 2007

Make beautiful fish art prints, explore Guthrie County from bike trails to beautiful rivers, paddle along as foragers search for wild edibles in Grant Wood County, tips for summer catfishing, patrol Iowa's big waters, take the sting out of poisonous plants and taste Japanese-inspired walleye recipes.

SEPTEMBER / OCTOBER 2007

Make easy natural dyes, view autumn splendor in Marquette/McGregor, enjoy moonlit paddling on the Shell Rock River, learn why canvasbacks are the king of ducks, follow former pro-athlete Bo Jackson's deer hunt, feel the cold of a rustic deer camp and savor the sweet heat of duck recipes.

JANUARY / FEBRUARY 2008

Are coyotes or dogs to blame for livestock losses? Make a custom camp kitchen, see Keokuk's eagles and find geodes. Ice safety tips. Clear Lake winter kite festival. See why migratory bluebills are vanishing. Cook up pheasant pot pie, venison mignon and Olde English venison roast.

MARCH / APRIL 2008

Craft Easter eggs with wild dyes, see why Van Buren County is a must for outdoor fun. Hop aboard as rescuers train to save lives on gushing spring rivers. Find locales for stunning wildflowers. Fishing hotspots. German-inspired hunter's pizza and pheasant in Riesling sauce.

MAY / JUNE 2008

A paddler's thoughts on Lake Red Rock and wild lands. Get outside in Linn County—hiking, rock climbing and paddling rugged Palisades-Kepler State Park. Hit the prairie as biologists learn which plants host the most insects to grow the biggest pheasants. Cook up southern fried flathead catfish.

JULY / AUGUST 2008

See what natural event hit Iowa with more force than all the world's nuclear bombs combined. Fifteen things you need to know about Honey Creek Resort State Park. Seek solitude in wild Winneshiek County. Iowa's top walleye waters. Fall venison stew, and pecan crusted catfish recipes.

SEPTEMBER / OCTOBER 2008

Grab a cup-o-coffee and pull an all-nighter with biologists on the hunt for rare bats in Van Buren County. Top bike rides for fall color. Go wild in Yellow River Forest. Meet survivors of a duck hunt gone bad—the famed Armistice Day Blizzard of 1940. Tempt your palate with smoked trout and seared pheasant.

Complete your collection!

BACK ISSUES AVAILABLE FOR ONLY $3.50 EACH
COST INCLUDES SHIPPING AND HANDLING

CALL 515-281-5918 TO ORDER YOUR ISSUES TODAY.