

Trees

In

These?

Believe it or not, trees
are found in over
5,000 household
items...

The items on this board are made with an ingredient from a tree. Possible
ingredients are tree gum,
cellulose, wood pulp, bark,
or logs.

- 1. Read the definition of each ingredient that comes from trees.

- 2. Get a chart, and write a short definition of each ingredient in the correct box.
- 3. Guess what ingredient is in each of these household items! Write down each item from the list in the column you think is correct.
- 4. When you are finished, check your answers using the answer key.

Tree gum is a sap extracted from trees.

Cellulose is a carbohydrate found
in plants.

Wood Pulp is ground up tree that is soft
and moist.

Bark is the outer layer of a tree. It provides protection
for the tree.

A log is piece of a trunk or large branch.

Toothpaste

Toilet Paper

Sponges

Shampoo

Perfume

Pencils

Parmesan Cheese

Paint

Newspaper

Milk Cartons

Maple Syrup

Lipstick

Ice Cream

Gum

Eyeglass

Frames

Football Helmets

Crackers

Crayons

Cough Syrup

Clothing

Baseball Bat

Candle

Bandaid

Answer Key:

Tree Gum	Cellulose	Wood Pulp	Bark	Log
Band-aids Candles Crayons Gum Maple Syrup	Clothing Cough Syrup Crackers Eyeglasses Frames Football Helmets Ice Cream Lipstick Makeup Paint Parmesan Cheese Shampoo Sponges Toothpaste	Milk Cartons Newspaper Toilet Paper	Perfume	Baseball Bat Pencils

Name _____

Tree Gum	Cellulose	Wood Pulp	Bark	Log
Definition:	Definition:	Definition:	Definition:	Definition:

- Crackers
- Fromas
- Ice Cream
- Maple Syrup
- Toilet Paper
- Candle
- Sponges
- Baseball Bat
- Pencils
- Clothing
- Milk Cartons
- Gum
- Eye-glass
- Toothpaste
- Perfume
- Cough Syrup
- Shampoo
- Newspaper
- Parmesan Cheese
- Football
- Lipstick
- Paint
- Helmets
- Crayons
- Band-Aid

1. Read the definition of each ingredient that comes from trees.

2. Get a chart, and write the definition of each ingredient in the correct box.

3. Guess what ingredient is in each of these household items! Write down each item from the list in the correct column.

4. When you are finished, check your answers using the answer key.

Cellulose is a carbohydrate found in plants.

Bark is the outer layer of a tree. It provides protection for the tree.

Tree gum is a sap extracted from trees.

A log is piece of a trunk or large branch.

Wood Pulp is ground up tree that is soft and moist.

Trees In These?

Believe it or not, trees are found in over 5,000 household items...

The items on this board are made with an ingredient from a tree. Possible ingredients are tree gum, cellulose, wood pulp, bark, or logs.

Tree Gum	Cellulose	Wood Pulp	Bark	Log
Definition	Definition	Definition	Definition	Definition

Chart Take one

answer key