

Photosynthesis is the process plants use to make their food.

Carbon dioxide (CO₂) comes from the air.

Energy comes from the light of the sun.

Oxygen(O₂) is let out into the air.

Water(H₂O) is absorbed through the roots.

