

Wild Ink (collaborative lyrics, Project AWARE Streamusic 2008)

Some say a river is a place to play . . .
Some say a river is an early grave . . .
I say the river doesn't care what we think . . .
it's writing its story in its own wild ink.

Some say a river is a fish and a hook . . .
Some say a river is a creek or a brook . . .
I say the river doesn't care what we think . . .
it's writing its story in its own wild ink.

Wild ink, wild ink . . . there's more to the river
than the water we drink.
Wild ink, wild ink . . . there's more to the river
than we might think.
Wild ink, wild ink . . . it's writing its story in its own wild . . . wild ink.

Some say the river is a boundary line . . .
Some say the river is more divine . . .
I say the river doesn't care what we think . . .
it's writing its story in its own wild ink.

Wild ink, wild ink . . . there's more to the river
than the water we drink.
Wild ink, wild ink . . . there's more to the river
than we might think.
Wild ink, wild ink . . . it's writing its story in its own wild . . . wild ink.
