THREATENED AND ENDANGERED SPECIES

A complete list of state and federal threatened and endangered species can be found on the following web pages:

- http://www.iowadnr.gov/Conservation/Iowas-Wildlife/Threatened-and-Endangered
https://www.fws.gov/endangered/

By signing below, I acknowledge that I have identified the specific species of fur-bearing animals, game animals, and game birds that I plan to possess, raise, and sell (see page 2 to identify species).

I acknowledge that this license does not allow me to possess, breed, propagate, sell, or dispose of any species which is defined as endangered or threatened under state or federal law.

I acknowledge and understand the rules and regulations regarding having this permit and realize that a State Conservation Officer may inspect my facility at any reasonable time. The Iowa game breeder laws can be found in Iowa Code Chapter 481A and the residency laws in Iowa Code Chapter 483A and Iowa Administrative Code Chapter 15.

**Under Iowa law, a person cannot own, possess, breed, or transport a "dangerous wild animal" as that term is defined in Iowa Code chapter 717F. Several protected fur-bearers are included in that definition. Since 2007, no Iowa resident can buy or obtain a "dangerous wild animal" to keep as a personal pet.

This is an application and must be processed before the actual license can be issued.
