

IOWA STATE PARKS

PLEASANT CREEK STATE RECREATION AREA 4530 McClintock Ln, Palo IA 52324

Welcome to Pleasant Creek State Recreation Area, premier outdoor recreation venue of Linn County. Pleasant Creek is home to a 410-acre lake, 1,517 acres of public hunting grounds, a swimming beach, campgrounds, and 8 miles of multi-use trails. As a unique resource, showcasing large tracts of restored prairie, Pleasant Creek State Recreation Area creates a wide variety of enjoyable outdoor experiences for all visitors.

PARK AMENITIES/POINTS OF INTEREST/THINGS TO DO

Pleasant Creek Lake offers a wide variety of fishing opportunities for both the novice and the experienced angler. From panfish to large game fish there is a species for all anglers to enjoy. Channel catfish, largemouth bass, bluegill, crappie, walleye, perch, white bass and muskellunge are all commonly caught.

As a no-wake lake, Pleasant Creek is popular for windsurfers, kayaks, canoes, SCUBA diving and pontoon boats. Near perfect water clarity during spring, and most of the summer, allows great visibility for divers. Swimming, showers and restrooms are all available at Pleasant Creek's spacious beach.

Camping is a favorite pastime at Pleasant Creek, and the three campgrounds fill most needs throughout the season. Campgrounds 1 and 2 have standard electric campsites, while campground 3 has standard electric and a few standard non-electric. A day-use primitive horse area is also available for equestrians. Two large open picnic shelters located alongside the lake, are available for reservation. Four rustic camping cabins are also available for rent and are popular during the spring, summer and fall months.

SPECIAL PARK RULES

Pleasant Creek is a no-wake lake. The beach area is an alcohol-free. Because Pleasant Creek is a state recreation area, it is open to public hunting. Dog training is allowed year-round at the field trial grounds. Pick up the rules/regulations booklet for more information on general park rules.

LOCAL EVENTS/ATTRACTIONS

One triathlon is held each summer at and around the recreation area - Pigman triathlon (June). Fishing tournaments are held on a regular basis each season on the lake. A large trail run/race is also held in September. Nearby Cedar Rapids hosts numerous activities throughout the summer and is also home to the Hawkeye Downs Raceway and Cedar Rapids Kernels minor league baseball team. Wickiup Hill Outdoor Learning Center is located about 6 miles from Pleasant Creek and serves as a fun and educational guide through Iowa's natural history.
