State Regulations require applications to be signed as follows:

For a corporation: by a responsible corporate officer. A responsible corporate officer means: (1) a president, secretary, treasurer, or vice-president in charge of a principal business function, or any other person who performs similar policy- or decision- making functions, or (2) the manager of manufacturing, production, or operating facilities, if authority to sign documents has been assigned or delegated to the manager in accordance with corporate procedures. Note: Specific assignments or delegation of authority to responsible corporate officers are not required. The department will presume that these responsible corporate officers have the requisite authority to sign permit applications unless the corporation provided notification to the contrary.

For a partnership or sole proprietorship: by a general partner or the proprietor, respectively.

For a municipality, State, Federal, or other public agency: by either the principal executive officer or ranking elected official. A principal executive officer of a public agency includes: (1) the chief executive officer of the agency, or (2) a senior executive officer having responsibility for the overall operations of a unit of the agency.
