Senate Resolution 50

By Dearden.
A resolution requesting the establishment of an interim study committee by the legislative council to conduct a study for purposes of determining how best to provide for a sustainable source or sources of funding for natural resources needs in this state.